

KLOVE radio station is very important to me. I listen to it almost exclusively. I am never worried about what the DJ's might say. It keeps my mind on God and I think I am a better driver, more patient when I am listening to it because it helps me have a poitive attitude I like my children to listen to it. An LPFM station would not provide this kind of music and influence my family in such a poitive way